Your Parish Matters

Dear Residents,

Firstly, we still need to recruit more Parish Councillors, so come and join a merry team. No skills needed - just a passion for your community.

We also would like to give a big thank you to Elaine Hall, who has decided to leave our council for health reasons. Elaine has been an incredibly dedicated member with a great passion for our Parish. She will be greatly missed.

On behalf of the Parish, I'd like to welcome Zac our new Maintenance Officer.

Great news, we have obtained a grant to replace the large climbing frame at our play area in Hilgay and to make other improvements.

As the King's coronation approaches some villages / communities will be arranging events to mark the occasion, and it has occurred to the Parish Council, that you may be wondering following the success of the Jubilee celebrations, if any such event's are being planned for Hilgay/Ten Mile Bank, unfortunately the Parish Council currently is operating at half strength, having several vacancies which we are currently looking to fill in the coming months and within our current numbers 2 councillors who have only joined very recently, sadly therefore we are not in a position to organise/participate in any arrangements for village celebrations.

Meanwhile there are still 7 weeks to go which would give time for residents to organise something to mark the occasion if they wish

Riverside Federation Hilgay & Ten Mile Bank School

Friends of Hilgay and Ten Mile Bank Riverside Academies

So after a challenging few years with COVID the Friends of Hilgay Riverside are turning a corner and we are back on the up with a new committee. We said goodbye to our long standing committee member Sonja Dudzik - after a move to Poland - and welcomed a lot of new faces.

Since September 2022, we've carried on with: our trusty lottery that runs half termly. All participants are in with a chance of winning £40.00 per week. We had a Spooktacular Disco in the village hall, A lovely festive Christmas Carol Concert up at the church, a mini Christmas Fair and giant raffle.

We are looking forward holding our annual Village Yard Sales on 21st May followed by our clothing collection on 22nd May.

For the summer, we're at the very early stages of looking into a large event for the village - so watch this space, it is sure to be lots of fun for all! Additionally, keep your eyes peeled for our well-loved bingo night - with a twist!

If you wish to support your local village school, then please feel free to contact us at: FOTSHRA@GMAIL.COM

Hilgay Methodist Church Serving God and Serving the Community

NEWS We have been encouraged by the support, which we have had for our events since Christmas. Twenty eight people came to the village coffee morning, which we hosted in January and the same number attended Tony Hall's talk at Guild. Our pancake party on Shrove Tuesday was also well attended and we were especially pleased that five high school students joined us after getting off the school bus.

COFFEE MORNINGS We are continuing to share hosting the village coffee mornings with the village hall. The coffee mornings take place on the last Thursday of the month. The coffee mornings in March, May and July will be at Hilgay Chapel and those in April, June and August will be at the village hall.

ECO-CHURCH AWARDS At our February Church Council, we decided to register with the Eco-Church award scheme and to work towards the bronze award. As part of the process, we are planning to hold a "GREEN SATURDAY" event from 10a.m until 12 noon on 22nd July, which will give people from the village and beyond a chance to swap and /or buy preloved items such as clothes, accessories, books, puzzles and toys. Refreshments will be served and there will be space to sit and chat.

All Saints Church – Hilgay & St Mark's, Ten Mile Bank

I recently set off for Las Vegas for a few days' holiday - courtesy of an amazing Christmas present from my youngest son. As one of my hobbies is doing magic tricks for my grandchildren, the magic capital of the world was a perfect place to go - and it was an unforgettable experience.

But despite its bright lights, glamour and nightlife, I have to admit that my visit to Vegas was rather humbling. Alongside wealthy tourists staying in luxury hotels, I saw the hardships of many who call Las Vegas home. I was moved with compassion for the individuals I saw on the streets struggling with addiction, homelessness, and poverty. It is no doubt that Vegas is a place of extremes - a city of excess in the heart of the desert.

I arrived back in the UK at the start of Lent which couldn't have been a greater contrast to my trip. Lent is a time when traditionally Christians 'fast' in some way as a spiritual discipline and as a reminder of our dependence on God. Before his public ministry, Jesus was tempted in the wilderness with everything the world could offer him - food, riches and power. Instead of giving in to these things, he modelled to us the importance of not giving into that temptation.

So as we continue to journey through Lent in the run up to Easter I would like to encourage you all to seek out new experiences, and to approach them with open hearts and minds. However, at the same time use what remains of Lent as a time in which you can look at what you might want to change in your life.

And speaking of Easter...I would like to invite you all to our Easter services at All Saints' Church, Hilgay and St Mark's Church, Ten Mile Bank. As a group of 7 churches following the A10 corridor from Southery to Denver we are having at least one service in each church during Holy Week. You can see full details on our website at www.ousevalleybenefice.org, but our Hilgay and Ten Mile Bank Easter services are as follows...

Sunday 2nd April, Palm Sunday, St Mark's Church, Ten Mile Bank – 11:00am

Wednesday 5th April, All Saints' Church, Hilgay – 10:00am

Wednesday 5th April, St Mark's Church, Ten Mile Bank - 2.30pm

(welcoming a group of pilgrims on the way to Walsingham)

Sunday 9th April, Easter Day, All Saints' Church, Hilgay - 9.15am

With gratitude and blessings (and a few more magic tricks up my sleeve!), Revd Nigel Moat

Service Schedule - April, May, June

Services are currently held on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month at All Saints' Church, Hilgay. The services start at 9.15am and tea and coffee is served after each service.

As part of our Easter services, we are also holding a service at St Mark's Church, Ten Mile Bank on Sunday April 2nd (Palm Sunday) at 11am. However, we are not currently holding other services at St Mark's as we explore what you as the community would like from the church in Ten Mile Bank.

Wood Hall – A Short History

By Tony Hall

Part 2 – The Manby years

Postcard of Wood Hall – Courtesy of Mike Bullen

In the 1630s, the land surrounding Wood Hall was subject to a number of fen drainage schemes constructed by the Dutch engineer Cornelius Vermuyden, notably Sam's Cut Drain which cut across the estate to drain the area between the Rivers Great Ouse and Wissey to provide improved grazing and arable land. Sometime between 1650 and 1655, Woodhall was passed by marriage once more to yet another family; that of Sir John Wray MP who had married Elizabeth Willoughby. It then remained in the hands of the Wray and Saunderson families for over 100 years until it was sold by Sir Cecil Wray in 1766.

It was purchased by Captain Matthew Pepper Manby, who served in the Welch Fusiliers and fought alongside General Wolfe at Quebec. The Manby family moved locally from Denver Hall, about three miles from Hilgay. They had two sons, George William Manby (1765-1854), of whom more later; and Thomas Manby (1769-1834) who was born at Wood Hall. Thomas went on to join the navy at an early age and after a distinguished career, retired in the rank of Vice-Admiral. On Matthew's death in November 1774, Wood Hall was inherited by his eldest son, George who was to put Hilgay on the map as the inventor of many life-saving appliances.

George attended school in Downham from the age of five, where he claimed to have been a contemporary of Horatio Nelson. This is unlikely due to a difference of seven years in their ages and there is no evidence that Nelson ever attended school in Downham Market. In fact, his numerous biographies state that he was educated in North Walsham and Norwich before joining the Navy.

Manby's father was keen for him to follow his footsteps into the army, so at the age of twelve, young George found himself in the military drawing-room at the Tower of London, attending a prep school for budding artillery officers. The emphasis was on mathematics which was not really his forte. Eventually he entered the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich, where he failed to graduate after four years. As a result, he had to lower his sights and take a part-time commission in the Cambridgeshire militia where he eventually attained the rank of captain. This was an army rank and not, as stated on his gravestone in Hilgay churchyard, a Captain in the Royal Navy".

In December 1793 he married Jane Preston, the daughter of a Suffolk Rector. Her extravagance and his incompetence in matters financial led to mounting debts, forcing the sale of the Wood Hall estate in November 1797. George and Jane fled from their creditors to South Wales and Bristol where George tried to scrape a living by writing guide books and Jane took a lover – a Captain Pogson – who subsequently shot Manby in the head and left the country, taking Jane with him. Manby survived and was promptly arrested for debt. His brother Thomas, now a naval captain, rescued him from debtor's prison and packed him off to sea as a lay chaplain.

On his return from sea in 1802, he wrote a paper about the dangers to the country posed by Napoleon, recommending his assassination and volunteering to carry it out. This offer was rejected as unstatesmanlike but he was rewarded by being appointed the Master of Yarmouth Barracks. It was while he was stationed on the coast that he started to develop his inventions.

The most important of these was the “Manby Mortar” – a device for firing a line from the shore to a stricken ship which saved thousands of lives. He went on to turn out more inventions, including an early fire extinguisher and was appointed to Fellowship of the Royal Society. Sadly, he failed to take commercial advantage of his innovations and died poor and alone, aged 89, in Great Yarmouth on 18th November 1854. He is buried and memorialised in All Saints church, Hilgay. Captain Manby always considered himself to be unappreciated which is born out by the inscription on his memorial in Hilgay church:

*In the churchyard near this spot rest the bones of George William Manby Capt.- FRS A name to be remembered as long as there can be a stranded ship. He died Nov 18. 1854 aged 88 years. Out of his eight brothers & sisters. The large marble stone also recorded the deaths of Mary Jane August 3rd 1772 aged 10 years. John May 20th 1783 Aged 10 and of two infants.
The public should have paid this tribute*

W.J.P 1863

Capt. George William Manby 1765-1854

Advertised in the Ipswich Journal and The Times on 6th November 1797, Wood Hall is described as being situated “in a good neighbourhood with the advantage of water carriage to the capital sea port and corn market of Lynn”.

Although the advert suggested that an early possession may be had, the new owner may not have moved in immediately as he had a full-time job in London and Manby did not settle in Clifton, Bristol until 1801.

The Munby's were the first local family to live permanently at the Hall since the Hawes, some two hundred years earlier. The intermediate owners all had grander estates elsewhere in the country and appear to have used Wood Hall as a second home or a hunting lodge in the season

The next generation of owners were to have a significant effect on the local area. Part three will cover this era.

The Wood Hall estate is private land with no public rights of way. Please respect its owner's privacy.
